ANGEL FLIGHT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

ATTACHEMENT TO WAIVER FORM;
FOR ATTENTION OF THE DOCTOR/SPECIALIST.

J.B. Morris
Director of Operations

Dear Sir or Madam,

As you will be aware Angel Flight of British Columbia exists to carry ambulatory passengers to medical centers in B.C. on routes as specified in the exemption granted by the Director General of Civil Aviation.

We ask each patient and escort to sign a standard Waiver Form prior to traveling with Angel Flight and in attempt to simplify our paperwork we have included in it a section to be signed by a doctor or medical specialist. Please sign the waiver form only, this letter does not require a signature. The section referred to is as follows:

DOCTOR'S CLEARANCE TO TRAVEL ON ANGEL FLIGHT.

I, Dr./ Specialist _____, am aware of no side effects that would preclude my patient _____ traveling on an unpressurized aircraft to a maximum height of 10,000 feet for his/her journey after undergoing medical treatment/diagnosis on _____ 2003 at _____ hospital/clinic.

Comments:

_____ Dated _____

The reason for including this section is to ensure that Angel Flight does not, inadvertently, harm a patient by flying them in an aircraft that is unpressurized. It is understood that with certain medical conditions the effects of altitude on a patient can be quite detrimental to their health, a situation that we wish to avoid.

We are not asking you to sign to ensure the safe passage of the patient but that, in your opinion, the patient will suffer no ill effects by traveling on one of our aircraft.

Any comments from you with regard to the air transportation of each patient is appreciated, such things as "possible motion sickness from treatment" will assist our pilots to plan the flight in more detail to ensure maximum passenger comfort.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter, we plan to provide this service on an increasing scale to all parts of B.C. and eventually to the rest of Canada.

Yours truly,

Jeff Morris
